

 GOD

 MAN

 FALL

 OFFER

 JESUS

 RESPONSE

1. God created the universe to be God-centered, or dependent on him.

1. God also created Adam and Eve to be God-centered, or dependent on him, meaning he created the first man and women so that he would be their king and what they treasured most.

1. Adam and Eve instead choose to be self-centered, or independent, meaning they became their own kings and what they treasured most.

1. God offers to make us God-centered, or dependent on him, meaning he offers be our king and what we treasure most.

1. God's offers come only through Jesus Christ. Jesus is God. He is therefore worthy of our dependence and of being our king and what we treasure most.

1. We accept God's offer by telling him we're sorry of our sin against him and by asking him to make us dependent on Jesus, which means Jesus becomes our king and what we treasure most.

2. God created Adam and Eve as perfect beings able to live with their perfect God in the perfect Garden of Eden.

2. Their sin made them imperfect beings and because of that, unable to live with their perfect God in the perfect Garden of Eden; they had to leave.

2. God offers to make us perfect beings able to live with our perfect God in the perfect Heaven.

2. Jesus is fully God and fully a man. He lived a perfect life in our place. He never sinned as a man on earth—something impossible for all mankind.

2. God accepts Jesus' perfect life in place of the imperfect lives of Christ-followers; God sees them as perfect beings who will live with Jesus in the perfect Heaven.

3. They were created to never die.

3. Their sin made them dead spiritually (separated from God) and they would die physically one day as payment for their disobedience.

3. God offers to pay for our death sentence himself so death does not mean physical and spiritual separation from God forever.

3. Jesus died on the cross in our place to pay the death penalty for our sins against God.

3. God accepts Jesus' death on the cross as payment for the penalty owed by Christ-followers. They will not have to die spiritually for their sin. No separation forever.

4. They were created to live forever with God.

4. They would not live forever with God.*
Since we're born outside the Garden and separated from God, the problems from the Fall are ours too.*

4. God offers to take us to Heaven when we die to live forever with him.

4. Jesus was raised from to defeat death. He is alive in Heaven with God.

4. Because Jesus was raised from the dead, he is in Heaven and will raise Christ-followers from the dead to take them to live with him in the perfect heaven forever.

 GOD

 MAN

 FALL

 OFFER

 JESUS

 RESPONSE

1. God created the universe to be God-centered, or dependent on him.

1. God also created Adam and Eve to be God-centered, or dependent on him, meaning he created the first man and women so that he would be their king and what they treasured most.

1. Adam and Eve instead choose to be self-centered, or independent, meaning they became their own kings and what they treasured most.

1. God offers to make us God-centered, or dependent on him, meaning he offers be our king and what we treasure most.

1. God's offers come only through Jesus Christ. Jesus is God. He is therefore worthy of our dependence and of being our king and what we treasure most.

1. We accept God's offer by telling him we're sorry of our sin against him and by asking him to make us dependent on Jesus, which means Jesus becomes our king and what we treasure most.

2. God created Adam and Eve as perfect beings able to live with their perfect God in the perfect Garden of Eden.

2. Their sin made them imperfect beings and because of that, unable to live with their perfect God in the perfect Garden of Eden; they had to leave.

2. God offers to make us perfect beings able to live with our perfect God in the perfect Heaven.

2. Jesus is fully God and fully a man. He lived a perfect life in our place. He never sinned as a man on earth—something impossible for all mankind.

2. God accepts Jesus' perfect life in place of the imperfect lives of Christ-followers; God sees them as perfect beings who will live with Jesus in the perfect Heaven.

3. They were created to never die.

3. Their sin made them dead spiritually (separated from God) and they would die physically one day as payment for their disobedience.

3. God offers to pay for our death sentence himself so death does not mean physical and spiritual separation from God forever.

3. Jesus died on the cross in our place to pay the death penalty for our sins against God.

3. God accepts Jesus' death on the cross as payment for the penalty owed by Christ-followers. They will not have to die spiritually for their sin. No separation forever.

4. They were created to live forever with God.

4. They would not live forever with God.*
Since we're born outside the Garden and separated from God, the problems from the Fall are ours too.*

4. God offers to take us to Heaven when we die to live forever with him.

4. Jesus was raised from to defeat death. He is alive in Heaven with God.

4. Because Jesus was raised from the dead, he is in Heaven and will raise Christ-followers from the dead to take them to live with him in the perfect heaven forever.

The GOSPEL in SIX
[Six Across & Four Down]

The GOSPEL in SIX
[Six Across & Four Down]